

THE LEGION OF THE WRENCH

END MOVIE

The following is the actual script that I wrote for the end movie, where Master Freeze is seen speaking in Japanese. Many of you may know that I have been actively studying Japanese for more than a year. I wanted to take this opportunity to present my progress by using honorific Japanese writing for the script.

- Master Freeze

[Start]

A dark screen, then an opening eyes sequence. There are three figures in view, initially blurry. Liquid, Lava, Stealth, all with upgraded designs compared to their last appearance.

A new shot shows Master Freeze is laying on the ground. A close-up of his face shows his power has been depleted.

Master Freeze: You've finally beaten me.

Liquid reaches out his hand to help Master Freeze get up.

A dramatic pause, showing Master Freeze again.

Master Freeze: Well done.

Master Freeze takes Liquid's hand. Fade to white.

[Scene]

A long table in an unspecified, arbitrary meeting room.

The Legion members are sitting at the table, with Master Freeze at the head of the table.

Master Freeze: 最後に皆様がいらっしゃいます。

(Saigo ni minna ga irasshaimasu.)

{Finally, everyone is here.}

After each name is called, a shot of them is shown. Each has a new design that is reflective of their real-life appearance. Some names are modified to Japanese versions, which are cleverly based on combinations of kanji and may only make sense when translated with the context in mind.

Master Freeze: 火山先生。

(Kazan-sensei.)

{Sensei Lava. ; direct = "Volcano-sensei"}

Master Freeze: 影先生。

(Kage-sensei.)

{Sensei Stealth. ; direct = "Shadow-sensei"}

Master Freeze: 液体長。

(Ekitaichou.)

{Master Liquid ; direct = 液体 means liquid and 長 (leader) borrows the sound from 体 to form 隊長 which means commander}

Master Freeze: ライオン。

(Raion.)

{Lion. ; Japanese version for "Beast" instead of 獣 (kemono)}

Master Freeze: サモサ。

(Samosa.)

{Samosa!}

Master Freeze: 猫上司。

(Neko joushi.)

{YaBoi ; direct = Cat Boss, Japanese version}

*degozaru (to be) is a polite form of desu used by characters in historical fiction, this is merely a choice in dialect to reflect the scenario

Master Freeze: アビッド。

(Abiddo.)

{Abid. ; Japanese version for IIzAbid}

Master Freeze: クリムソン。

(Kurimuson.)

{Crimson!}

Master Freeze: キング。

(Kingu.)

{King!}

Master Freeze: そして喪麺。

(Soshite Momen.)

{...and Cruel Noodle ; direct = Calamity Noodle, phonetically similar to Momin, the real-life name of the individual}

Master Freeze: 皆、お聞きになってください。レンチの初めから本日まで七年が過ぎました。私は最初からたくさんの目標がありました。しかし、生活は全部が終わるはずでござる。自分の予定や生き物や世界も終わります。

(Minna, okiki ni natte kudasai. Renchi no hajime kara honjitsu made shichi nen ga sugimashita. Watashi wa saisho kara takusan no mokuhyou ga arimashita. Shikashi, seikatsu wa zenbu ga owaru hazu degozaru. Jibun no yotei ya ikimono mo owarimasu.)*

{Everyone, please listen. Seven years have passed since the Wrench began. I had intended many purposes from the beginning. However, everything in life must come to an end. Our own plans, living beings, and even the world itself.}

Master Freeze: お時間を下さいましてありがとうございました。本日は逃がしてあげます。自分で賞を改めましょう。

(Ojikan wo kudaisaimashite arigatougozaimashita. Honjitsu wa nigashiteagemasu. Jibun de shou wo aratamemashou.)

{Thank you for all of your time. Today, I am letting you all go. Start a new chapter on your own.}

A brief pause, then a switch in formality. Master Freeze is now speaking casually to his friends.

Master Freeze: じゃあ...お前たち、頑張ったほうがいい。行け！

(Jaa...omae tachi, ganbatta hou ga ii. Ike!)

{Well...you guys, you better do your best. Go!}

[Scene]

Cut to a drawing of all of them together.

(Music)

Display a montage of the Wrench over the years, and finish off with a message on-screen. "Thank you!"

[End]
